The case of the prosecution as per the self-statement of the Sub-Inspector of Police, Sri Suman Kumar Mishra, Sidhwalia Police Station is that on 15.10.2019 at about 20.05 hours in the evening, he received a secret information that some miscreants had assembled towards south of NH-28 and were planning to commit some crime, whereafter the SHO,

Baikunthpur, SHO, Mohamadpur and SHO, Barauli had arrived at Barahima chowk where the informant was also present and thereafter, they had proceeded towards parking field of Barahima and upon noticing the police force, the accused persons standing there had tried to escape, however, four persons were apprehended including the petitioner herein and as far as the petitioner is concerned, four live cartridges and one dagger were recovered.
