In Re: An application for anticipatory bail under Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 in connection with Balurghat Police Station case No.416 of 2020 dated 24.10.2020 under Sections 341/325/307 of the Indian Penal Code read with Section 25(i) (c) of Arms Act.

And

In the matter of : Rakesh Sil @ Shil

... Petitioner

Mr. Kaushik Chowdhury ... for the petitioner

Mr. Narayan Prasad Agarwala
Mr. Goutam Wilson ... for the State

The learned advocate for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case and there is no necessity for custodial interrogation or detention. The learned advocate for the State produces the case diary.

We have perused the material on record including the case diary and the injury report which reflect that there is no external injury. Having regard to the materials on record we are of the opinion that the present petitioner has been able to make out a case for being admitted on anticipatory bail.

Accordingly, prayer for anticipatory bail is allowed.

In the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties of like amount each one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer of the case, subject to the condition not to intimidate the witnesses.

The aforesaid order shall be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

The application for anticipatory bail being CRM 9022 of 2020 is disposed of.
