And

Mr. Swapan Banerjee,
Mr. Suman De ... For the State.

Learned advocate for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is in custody for about 327 days and charge-sheet has already been submitted by the investigating agency. The learned advocate further adds that having regard to the nature of allegation it seems to be improbable and considering the period of detention, the petitioner may be released on bail.

Learned advocate for the State draws the attention of this Court to the statement of the victim under Section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

We have taken into account the nature of allegation as also the statement of the victim before the learned Magistrate. Having regard to the nature, gravity and heinousness of the offence, we are not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, prayer for bail of the petitioner is rejected.

The application being CRM 9207 of 2020 is disposed of.
