In Re: - An application for anticipatory bail under Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure filed on 05/02/2020 in connection with Samuktala P.S. Case No. 10 of 2020 dated 13/01/2020 under Section 376/417/506/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

And

In the matter of: Sanjoy Roy

....petitioner.

Mr. P. Bhattacharay

...for the petitioner.

Mr. A. Das

...for the State.

It is submitted on behalf of the petitioner that there was a love affair between the parties and he has been falsely implicated in the instant case.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail.

Having considered the materials on record and bearing in mind the nature of allegations in the light of the aforesaid submission that there was love a affair between the parties, we are inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

In the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a Bond of Rs. 10,000/- with two sureties of like amount each to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973. Petitioner shall meet the Investigating Officer once in a week until further orders and hand over his passport, if any, within fortnight from date. In the event he does not have a passport, he shall personally appear before the Investigating Officer and furnish an affidavit to that effect within the time frame mentioned hereinabove.

The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, disposed of.
