Notice waived by Mr Raman Sharma learned AAG on behalf of respondents.

Learned counsel for petitioner submits that the petitioners will feel satisfied if the petition is disposed of at the threshold stage.

Learned counsel for respondents did not oppose the preposition. Accordingly, the petition is taken on Board for final disposal.

It is contended that petitioners 1 and 2 are married to each other being major. The marriage has been solemnized by the two to the disliking of their relations, who are hell-bent to disturb their matrimonial life and petitioners allege that official respondents are harassing the petitioners at their instances. Petitioner no.2 contends to be living happily with petitioner no.1 out of her own free will, therefore, writ petition is filed for protecting their rights by directing the respondents not to interfere with or harass the petitioners' peaceful life.

In the given circumstances, this petition is disposed of alongwithwith connected CM(s) with direction to official respondents not to harass the petitioners if their marriage is established to have taken place out of free will of Petitioner No. 2.
