Coram: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJESH BINDAL, JUDGE

ORDER

1. The petitioners had approached this Court seeking protection of their life and liberty on account of having married against the wishes of their family members.

2. A perusal of the paper book shows that even notice in the petition has not been issued till date. The matter was last listed in Court on 31.03.2018, when none appeared for the parties.

3. Thereafter, the petitioners have not raised any grievance. Apparently, they have no threat to their life and liberty.

4. As the hearing of the cases now is being conducted through video conferencing, the required link for joining the video conferencing is being circulated amongst all the lawyers. Besides this, the Bench Secretary/Reader are forwarding the link to all the Advocates, who contact them one day prior to the listing of their cases. For which specific note is being published in the Cause List. But none of the counsel has shown any interest.

5. The aforementioned fact clearly establishes that the prayer made in the present petition has been rendered infructuous and the same is, accordingly, dismissed.
