Order No.02 Dated- 10.12.2020

Heard the parties through video conferencing.

Learned counsel for the petitioner personally undertakes to remove the defects as pointed out by the stamp reporter within two weeks after the lockdown period is over.

In view of the personal undertaking of the learned counsel for the petitioner, the defects pointed out by the stamp reporter are ignored for the present.

The petitioner has moved this Court for grant of bail in connection with Sakchi P.S. Case No.123 of 2020 registered under sections 341/323/354B/356/382 of the Indian Penal Code.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the allegation against the petitioner is that the petitioner and the co-accused person have outraged the modesty of the informant. It is further submitted that the allegations against the petitioner are all false. It is next submitted that the petitioner has been in custody since 08.07.2020 as has been mentioned in paragraph no. 11 of the bail application. It is next submitted that the petitioner undertakes that he will not annoy or disturb the informant in any manner and will not go to or near the house of the informant during the pendency of the case. It is lastly submitted that the petitioner undertakes to cooperate with the trial of the case. Hence, it is submitted that the petitioner be admitted to bail.

The learned Addl. P.P. opposes the prayer for bail.

Considering the submissions of the counsels and the fact as discussed above, I am inclined to enlarge the above named petitioner on bail. Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned C.J.M., Jamshedpur, in connection with Sakchi P.S. Case No.123 of 2020 with the condition that the petitioner will not annoy or disturb the informant in any manner and will not go to or near the house of the informant during the pendency of the case and he will cooperate with the trial of the case.
