Heard the parties through video conferencing.

Learned counsel for the petitioner personally undertakes to remove the defects as pointed out by the stamp reporter within two weeks after the lockdown period is over.

In view of the personal undertaking of the learned counsel for the petitioner, the defects pointed out by the stamp reporter are ignored for the present.

The petitioner has moved this Court for grant of bail in connection with Jagarnathpur P.S. Case No.222 of 2020 registered under sections 302/34 of the Indian Penal Code and under section 27 of the Arms Act.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the allegation against the petitioner is that the weapon of offence used in the murder of Rakesh Saw @ Bauwa was kept in the house of the co-accused by the petitioner. It is further submitted that the allegations against the petitioner are all false and there is no allegation against the petitioner of being involved in murder of the said Rakesh Saw @ Bauwa. It is then submitted that the petitioner has no criminal antecedent as has been mentioned in paragraph no.16 of the bail application and the main allegation of firing is against Monu Tiger. It is next submitted that the petitioner has been in custody since 23.06.2020 as has been mentioned in paragraph no. 12 of the bail application. It is then submitted that the co-accused person has already been admitted to bail by this Court vide order dated 02.12.2020 in B.A. No.9088 of 2020. It is lastly submitted that the petitioner undertakes to cooperate with the trial of the case. Hence, it is submitted that the petitioner be admitted to bail.

The learned Addl. P.P. opposes the prayer for bail.

Considering the submissions of the counsels and the fact as discussed above, I am inclined to enlarge the above named petitioner on bail. Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Ranchi, in connection with Jagarnathpur P.S.
