Hon'ble Smt. Justice Rajani DubeyOrder on Board*05.03.2020

1. The accused/applicant has moved this first bail application under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for releasing him on regular bail during trial in connection with Crime No. 414/2019 registered at Police Station – Sipat, Civil and Revenue District- Bilaspur (C.G.) for the offence punishable under Section 498-A, 34 of IPC.
2. As per the prosecution case, the complainant, who is the wife of applicant, lodged a report before the concerned police station alleging therein that, her marriage was solemnized with the present applicant on 17.04.2019. After some time of marriage, applicant revealed his illicit relations with another lady namely Smt. Ranjana. Complainant objected him for his wrong doing but the applicant did the same continuously. One day, about the same, applicant beat the complainant brutally with the belt and tried to pour kerosene oil in her mouth. After that, the complainant came her parental (uncle) house and she was admitted in CIMS Hospital, Bilaspur.

Based on that, after investigation, offence has been registered against the applicant and he has been arrested.

3. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant is innocent and has been falsely implicated in the case. He next submits that applicant is jail since 14.11.2019, and he is ready to furnish adequate surety and shall abide by all the conditions and directions, which may be imposed by this court, therefore, the present applicant may be released on bail.
4. On the other hand, counsel for the State opposes the bail application.
5. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the case diary.
6. Taking into consideration the nature and gravity of the offence, facts and circumstances of the case, and further considering that the applicant is in jail since 14.11.2019 and the trial is likely to take some time for its final disposal, this Court is of the view that it is a fit case to release the applicant on bail. Accordingly, the application is allowed.
7. Accused/applicant is directed to be released on bail on his executing a personal bond in the sum of Rs. 25,000/- with one surety in the like sum to the satisfaction of the trial Court. He is directed to appear before the said Court on each and every date given to him by the said Court.
