The applicant has filed this application under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for grant of regular bail as he is in custody in connection with Crime No.09/2019 registered at police station Konta, District Sukma (CG) for the offence punishable under Section 20(B) of the Narcotics Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act.

As per prosecution case, on receiving secret information, the police party raided and seized 20kgs. of ganga from the possession of the applicant.

Counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant has been falsely implicated in the case and the mandatory provisions of NDPS

Act have not been complied with. He further submits that the applicant is in jail since 29.05.2019; charge sheet has been filed and looking to the conduct of the prosecution it is clear that the trial will take time for its conclusion.

On the other hand counsel for the State opposes the bail application.

Having heard counsel for the parties, considered the totality of the fact, in particular the detention period of the applicant, I am inclined to release him on regular bail. Accordingly, his application filed under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure is allowed.
