2. The applicant allegedly entered the shop of the complainant and demanded money for purchasing liquor. In the process, he assaulted the complainant.

4. Learned State counsel would oppose the prayer for grant of bail.
5. Considering the nature of allegation, this Court is inclined to extend benefit of anticipatory bail to the applicant. Accordingly, the bail application is allowed and it is directed that in the event of arrest of the applicant, he shall be released on anticipatory bail on his executing a personal bond for a sum of Rs.50,000/- with one surety in the like sum to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer with the following conditions:-

(i) he shall make himself available for interrogation by a police officer as and when required.
