Order On Board25/6/2020

1. Heard.
2. These are the two applications filed under Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for grant of anticipatory bail to the applicants, who are apprehending their arrest in connection with Crime No.61/2020, registered at Police Station Khatghora, District Korba for the offence punishable under Sections 384, 294 & 506 of IPC.
3. As per the allegation contained in the case diary, the applicants obtained a sum of Rs. 4 lakhs from the account of the complainant by a forged cheque.
4. On the other hand, learned counsel for the applicants would submit that the complainant had obtained a loan of Rs. 7 lakhs from the applicants at the time of marriage of his daughter; immediately after receiving the amount from his employer, the complainant himself paid a sum of Rs. 4 lakhs to the applicants and later on, lodged a report so that he is not required to repay the remaining amount.
5. There is no report of the Handwriting Expert proving that the cheque of Rs. 4 lakhs was not signed by the complainant.
6. Considering the position of admitted loan transaction between the parties, I am of the opinion that present is a fit case in which, the applicants should be extended the benefit of Section

438 of Cr.P.C.

7. Accordingly, the applications are allowed and it is directed that in the event of arrest of these applicants, they shall be released on anticipatory bail on each of them executing a personal bond for a sum of Rs.50,000/- with one surety each in the like sum to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer with the following conditions :-

- (i) they shall make themselves available for interrogation by a Police Officer as and when required;
