Order on Board

19/05/2020

1. The present Writ Petition has been filed by the Petitioner seeking compliance of the order passed by this Court on 3.9.2014 in First Appeal No. 9/2000.
2. Perusal of record would show that the Petitioner in between had gone to the Family Court and there is also an order passed by the Family Court on 11.9.2017.
3. No document has been brought on record nor is there any pleading to show that the order of the Family Court was ever challenged by the Petitioner.
4. Given the said fact that the Petitioner having approached the Family Court and the Family Court having passed an order dated 11.9.2017 based on the order passed in First Appeal No. 9/2000, this Court is of the opinion that the present Writ Petition seeking compliance of the said order of the High Court would not be maintainable.
5. Accordingly, reserving the right of the Petitioner to avail any other appropriate remedy under the law, if permissible, the Writ Petition stands dismissed.
