

HIGH COURT OF CHHATTISGARH, BILASPUR

Order Sheet

WPS No. 2383 of 2020

- Vivek Porwal S/o Radheshyam Porwal Aged About 39 Years R/o- A/59, Dream City, Bilaspur, District Bilaspur, Chhattisgarh

---- Petitioner

Versus

- Sambhav Agro Industries Through- Director Sambhav Agro Industries 1st Floor, In Front Ramnath, Bhimsen, Dharmshala, Near Agrasen College, Samta Colony Raipur, District- Raipur, Chhattisgarh

---- Respondent

|            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 29/06/2020 | Shri Vineet Kumar Pandey, Counsel for the Petitioner. Heard. At the threshold, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission of the Court to withdraw the instant writ petition with liberty to file appropriate proceeding along with approach before the Provident Fund Commissioner for redressal of grievances. Prayer is allowed. As prayed, the writ petition is dismissed as withdrawn with the aforesaid liberty. Sd/-(Goutam Bhaduri)Judge |
| Jyoti      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |