The accused/applicant has moved this first bail application under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for releasing him on regular bail during trial in connection with Crime No.32/2020, registered at Police Station - Raghunathnagar, District Balrampur-Ramanujganj(C.G.) for the offence punishable under Sections 21 (A) of the N.D.P.S. Act.
5. It is the case of the prosecution that on 12.4.2020, the police has seized 16 Nos. Altorex Cough syrup (each 100 ml) worth Rs.1840/- from the possession of the applicant. On the basis of above, offence has been registered and the applicant was arrested.

6. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant has been falsely implicated in the crime in question and mandatory provisions of the N.D.P.S. He submits that as the applicant is in custody since 12.4.2020 and the trial is likely to take some time for its final disposal, he may be released on bail.
7. On the other hand, counsel for the State opposes the bail application.
8. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, in particular the nature of allegations against the applicant; the applicant is in jail since 12.4.2020 and yet charge sheet has not been filed and further considering that trial may take some time for its final disposal, I am of the opinion that present is a fit case, in which, the applicant should be enlarged on regular bail.
