Order On Board

29/05/2020

The applicant has filed this application under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for grant of regular bail as he is in custody in connection with Crime No.381/2020 registered at police station Thana Sarkanda, District Bilaspur (CG) for the offence punishable under Sections 3,4,5 and 7 of the Human Trafficking (Prevention) Act.

As per prosecution case, on receiving secret information, the police party raided and the applicant along with other co-accused have been found involved in the business of prostitution.

Counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant has been falsely implicated in the case. He submits that the similarly placed co-accused persons have been granted bail who are the main accused and therefore the applicant may also be granted the benefit. He further submits that the applicant is in jail since 18.4.2020; and looking to the conduct of the prosecution it is clear that the trial will take time for its conclusion.

On the other hand counsel for the State opposes the bail application.

Having heard counsel for the parties, considered the totality of the fact, in particular the detention period of the applicant, I am inclined to release him on regular bail. Accordingly, his application filed under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure is allowed.

It is directed that in the event of the applicant's furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs. 25,000/- with one surety for the like sum to the satisfaction of the concerned Court, he shall be released on bail.

It is made clear that if the applicant has already been released on bail pursuant to the bail bonds already furnishing in view of the order passed by the High Power Committee constituted in compliance of the order of the Supreme Court of India dated 23.03.2020 in the matter of In Re: Contagion of COVID 19 Virus in Prisons (Suo Moto Writ Petition (C) No. 1/2020), he need not furnish bail bonds afresh and the bail bonds already furnished shall be deemed to be the bail bonds furnished in compliance of the order of this Court, but if he has not furnished the bail bonds earlier, then he will be required to furnish bail bonds within four weeks' from today.
