4. The prosecution story in brief is that, the complainant lodged a report that the applicant along with two other co-accused persons intercepted the goods carrier vehicle of the complainant. Thereafter, snatched the key of the vehicle and by driving the goods carrier vehicle fled away. Police Station, Supela intercepted the goods carrier vehicle and transferred the applicant and other co-accused persons to P.S. Pulgaon. 5. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant is innocent and has been falsely implicated in the crime in question. He further submits that all the offences are triable by judicial Magistrate. He next submits that the applicant is in jail since 17.02.2020, there is no likelihood of his case being decided in near future, therefore, the present applicant may be released on bail.

6. On the other hand, counsel for the State opposes the bail application and submits that the allegation against the applicant is of serious in nature, therefore, no case is made out for grant of bail.
7. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the case diary.

Taking into consideration the nature and gravity of the offence, facts and circumstances of the case, detention period of applicant and further considering the facts that the applicant is in jail since 17.02.2020, and the trial is likely to take some time for its final disposal, this Court is of the view that it is a fit case to release the applicant on bail. 10.
