

HIGH COURT OF CHHATTISGARH, BILASPURM.Cr.C. No. 6482 of 2020

Kranti Yadav son of Biselal Yadav, aged about 30 years, R/o. Village Sikosa, Police Station and Tahsil Gunderdehi, District Balod (C.G.) (In jail)

---- ApplicantVersus

State of Chhattisgarh, Through : The District Magistrate Balod, District Balod
(C.G.)

---- Non-applicant

For Applicant : Mr. G.R. Burman, Advocate.
For Non-applicant/State : Dr. Veena Nair, Dy. Advocate General.

Hon'ble Shri Justice Sanjay K. AgrawalOrder On Board*01/10/2020

- (1) Proceedings of this matter have been taken-up through video conferencing.
- (2) The accused/applicant has preferred this bail application under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for releasing him on regular bail during trial in connection with Crime No. 385/2020 registered at Police Station –Balod for the offence punishable under Section 34(2) of the CG Excise Act.
- (3) Case of the prosecution, in brief, is that 9.720 bulk liters of illicit liquor was seized by the police from the present applicant.
- (4) Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant has been falsely implicated in the crime in question as he has not committed any offence. He further submits that as the applicant has been arrested on 31.8.2020 and the trial is likely to take some time for its final disposal, he may be released on bail.

(5) On the other hand, learned counsel for the State opposes the bail application.

(6) I have heard the counsel appearing for the parties and perused the case diary.

(7) Taking into consideration the condition incorporated in Section 59-A(ii) of the C.G. Excise Act, 1915, and bearing in mind the principles of law laid down in Banti Singh v. State of Chhattisgarh (M.Cr.C. No.6846 of 2014, decided on 05.01.2015), if the facts of present case are examined, it is apparent that only 9.720 bulk liters of illicit liquor has been seized from him which is more than prescribed limit, but looking to the fact that the applicant has been arrested on 31.8.2020, case is triable by the Judicial Magistrate First Class, trial is likely to take some more time and further taking into account the nature and gravity of offence and plea raised by the applicant that he has falsely been implicated in case, I am of the opinion that present is the fit case, in which, the applicant should be enlarged on regular bail.

(8) Accordingly, the bail application filed under Section 439 of the Cr.P.C. is allowed. It is directed that on furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs.25,000/- with one surety in the like sum to the satisfaction of the concerned Court for his appearance as and when directed, the applicant shall be released on bail, subject to following conditions:

- That, the applicant shall furnish a specific undertaking that while on bail, he will not commit any excise offence, otherwise bail granted to him shall be liable to be cancelled and shall co-operate the prosecution during trial.
- That, the accused/applicant shall make himself available for interrogation before the concerned Investigating Officer as and when required and the accused/applicant shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him/her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer.

- That, the accused/applicant shall not act, in any manner, which will be prejudicial to fair and expeditious trial.

(9) It is made clear that if the applicant has already been released on bail pursuant to the bail bonds already furnished in view of the order passed by the High Power Committee constituted in compliance of the order of the Supreme Court of India dated 23.03.2020 in the matter of In Re : Contagion of COVID 19 Virus in Prisons (Suo Moto Writ Petition (c) No. 1/2020), he need not furnish bail bonds afresh and the bail bonds already furnished shall be deemed to be the bail bonds furnished in compliance of the order of this Court, but if he has not furnished the bail bonds earlier, then he will be required to furnish bail bonds.
