Hon'ble Shri Justice P. Sam Koshy
Order On Board

08.10.2020

1. The present writ petition has been filed alleging certain illegalities being committed by the respondent no.5 in the nature of illegally plotting the plots that are situated at Khasra Nos. 45/09, 45/11 & 45/43 at village Doma, Tahsil & District Raipur.
2. At the outset, this Court is of the opinion that the petitioners as such do not have any locus to challenge the same for the reason that it is none of the petitioners' personal right which is in any manner infringed by the alleged action of the respondent No.5. Moreover, the petitioners are not even the resident of that village where the respondent no.5 is said to be plotting the aforesaid property illegally.
3. It is settled position of law so far as a petition under Section 226 of the Constitution of India is concerned, it is only the person aggrieved who can file a petition particularly when any of his fundamental rights has been infringed. The petitioners have not been able to show any such personal infringement of their right which led to the filing of the present writ petition.
4. Thus, the present writ petition being devoid of merits stands dismissed on this ground alone reserving the right of the petitioners to avail other remedies open to them.
