1. The applicant has preferred this first bail application under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for grant of regular bail as he is arrested in connection with Crime No.240/2019, registered at Police Station - Vidhan Sabha Raipur (C.G.) for the offence punishable under Sections 363 and 366 IPC.
2. The prosecution story, in brief, is that complainant Jai Shobha Rao, mother of the prosecutrix, lodged a missing report that her daughter had gone out without informing to family members. She searched her daughter at own level but of no avail. During investigation, the prosecutrix recovered from the applicant, her statement was recorded, based on which, offence has been registered. The present applicant has been taken into custody on 06.06.2019.
3. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant is innocent and has been falsely implicated in the case. He further submits that the prosecutrix is aged about 17 years and, in her 164 CrPC statement, she has not supported the prosecution case. He also submits that the applicant is in custody since 06.06.2019, charge sheet has been filed and there is no likelihood of his case being decided in near future. Therefore, he may be released on bail.

4. On the other hand, learned counsel for the State opposed the bail application.
5. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the case diary.
6. Considering the totality of the facts and circumstances of the case, quality of evidence and further considering the fact that the applicant is in custody since 06.06.2019, charge sheet has been filed and the trial is likely to take some time, without further commenting on merits of the case, I am inclined to release him on bail.
7. Accordingly, the bail application is allowed.
