HIGH COURT OF CHHATTISGARH, BILASPURCRMP No. 128 of 2020

- Om Prakash Gupta, S/o Suresh Gupta, Aged about 36 years, R/o- Village Murka, PS- Chalgali, Tahsil Balrampur, District- Balrampur Ramanujganj (C.G.) ----- Petitioner

Versus

- Vikas Oyam, S/o Shikari Oyam, Aged about 35 years, R/o- Village Murka, PS- Chalgali, Tahsil Balrampur, District- Balrampur Ramanujganj (C.G.) ----- Respondent

 For Petitioner : Shri Pramod Shrivastava, Advocate.

Hon'ble Shri Justice Ram Prasanna SharmaOrder on Board*13/02/2020

1. Heard on I.A. No. 01/2020, which is an application for cononation of delay in filing the petition.
2. On due consideration and for the reasons mentioned in the application, delay of 221 days in filing the instant petition is condoned.
3. Also heard on application for grant of leave to appeal filed under Section 378(4) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.
4. On due consideration, leave is granted.
5. This petition is preferred against the order dated 13th March, 2019 passed by Judicial Magistrate First Class, Balrampur, District- Balrampur Ramanujganj (C.G.) in Complaint Case No. 257/2018 filed under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 (for short 'the Act, 1881') wherein the said Court dismissed the complaint filed by the petitioner for want of prosecution.

6. It appears from the order sheets of the trial Court that the case was fixed for stating particular of offence against the respondent/accused on 13th March, 2019, on the said date presence of the appellant/complainant was not compulsory and the same was dismissed by the trial Court on single default.
7. Dismissal of complaint was not the only option before the trial Court. The trial Court should have adjourned the case for some other date as per the provisions of Section 256(1) of the Cr.P.C. The trial Court after restitution of the case should have proceeded to decide the case on merit between the parties, but that is not done in the present case and without deciding the issues between the parties, the record was sent to record room.
8. In the matter of Associated Cement Co. Ltd. Vs. Keshvanand reported in (1998) 1 SCC 687, Hon'ble the Apex Court held as under:-

“18. Reading the Section in its entirety would reveal that two constraints are imposed on the court for exercising the power under the Section. First is, if the court thinks that in a situation it is proper to adjourn the hearing then the Magistrate shall not acquit the accused. Second is, when the Magistrate considers that personal attendance of the complainant is not necessary on that day the Magistrate has the power to dispense with his attendance and proceed with the case. When the Court notices that the complainant is absent on a particular day the court must consider whether personal attendance of the complainant is essential on that day for progress of the case and also whether the situation does not justify the case being adjourned to another date due to any other reason. If the situation does not justify the case being adjourned the Court is free to dismiss the complaint and acquit the accused. But if the presence of the complainant on that day was quite unnecessary then resorting to the step of axing down the complaint may not be a proper exercise of the power envisaged in the section. The discretion must, therefore be exercised judicially and fairly without impairing the cause of administration of criminal justice.”

9. Again, in the matter of Mohd. Azeem Vs. A. Venkatesh & another reported in (2002) 7 SCC 726, Hon'ble the Apex Court held that in a proceeding under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, the single default in appearance on the part of the complainant, the dismissal of the complaint case is not proper, legal and justified.
10. Accordingly, the instant appeal is allowed and the order passed by the trial Court is hereby set aside. Now the case is remanded back to the trial Court for deciding the case afresh after hearing the parties. The trial Court is directed to decide the case on merit after providing opportunity of hearing for adducing evidence to both sides.
11. The appellant shall remain present before the trial Court for further proceeding on 26th March, 2020.
