ORAL ORDER

Today, learned APP waives service of notice of rule for and on behalf of respondent No.2.

The present application has been filed by the applicant to release him on temporary bail for a period of 30 days on the ground of medical treatment of his mother.

I have heard learned advocate for the applicant and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondents.

Learned advocate for the applicant submits that applicant's mother is operated for Uterus and she again advised for the operation of sacrospinous fixation of vaginal vault. That the applicant is having liability of his family members and his economic condition is not so good and thus, temporary bail may be granted to the applicant.

Learned APP for the respondents has strongly opposed for grant of temporary bail to the present applicant and submitted that applicant is involved in serious offence and therefore, on the ground raised by him to release on temporary bail, no prayer can be granted by this Court. Hence, it is requested to dismiss this application.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case as well as having heard learned advocates for the respective parties, I am of the opinion that the application requires consideration and the same is partly allowed.

The applicant shall be released on temporary bail for a period of 10 Days from the date of his actual release, on executing personal bond of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only) before the Jail authority and on usual terms and conditions.

During the period of temporary bail, the applicant shall mark his presence on alternate day before the concerned police station between 9:00 a.m to 4:00 p.m. The applicant shall surrender to the Jail Authority after completion of temporary release, without fail.

During the period of temporary bail, the applicant shall not leave Surat City and shall not abuse the liberty granted to him and shall maintain law and order.

Rule is made absolute to the aforesaid extent.

The Registry is directed to communicate this order to the concerned jail authority by fax or e-mail.
