CORAM : V.K. JADHAV, J.

DATE : 6TH NOVEMBER, 2020.

PER COURT:

I do not find any substance in both the writ petitions. So far as the Contempt Proceedings are concerned, the College Tribunal has heard both the parties at length and reserved the matters for orders. Though, the petitioners have requested the College Tribunal to keep the Contempt Proceedings in abeyance till disposal of the writ petitions, however, the College Tribunal has not considered the same since the matters are already reserved for orders and informed the petitioners that after Diwali Vacation, orders will be pronounced. It further appears that the petitioners herein, have not challenged the original order passed by the College Tribunal, of which the contempt has been alleged. In view of the same, the petitioners are always at liberty to challenge the order passed by the College Tribunal in those Contempt proceedings. However, these petitions are premature.

2]           There is no reason for this Court to consider the grounds raised by the petitioners before the College Tribunal when the Tribunal has reserved the orders in said contempt proceedings, by adhering to the grounds raised by the petitioners in the Contempt Proceedings.

3]           In view of the above, both the writ petitions are hereby dismissed.
