CORAM : Z.A.HAQ, J.

DATE : 06th March, 2020.

P.C. :

01 In proceedings challenging the succession certificate granted in favour of the respondents, the petitioner had filed an application praying for temporary injunction. By order dated 11.05.2018, the trial Court allowed the application and restrained present respondents from using the succession certificate granted in their favour for any purpose till disposal of the petition. This order was challenged by the present respondents before the District Court in appeal which is allowed by the impugned judgment. The learned District Judge has set aside the order passed by the trial Court and has rejected the application filed by the present petitioner praying for temporary injunction.

02 The learned advocate for the petitioner submitted that the proceedings before the trial Court challenging the succession certificate granted in favour of the Respondents are disposed.

03 Hence, challenge in the petition is rendered infructuous and the petition is disposed accordingly. No costs.
