

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

REJECTED CASE NO. 40 OF 2019
IN
FIRST APPEAL (ST) NO. 12939 OF 2017

United India Insurance Company Ltd. ...Appellant

Vs. /Applicant

Vaibhav Raju Rupnar Minor

through the G.A.L. Raju Bapu

Rupnar & Ors. ...Respondents

.....

Mr. Ketan Joshi, for the Applicant.

Mr. T. S. Ingale, for the Respondent No.1.

.....

CORAM : SHRIKANT D. KULKARNI, J.

DATE : 15 JULY, 2022

P.C.

. Heard Mr. Ketan Joshi, learned counsel for the Applicant and Mr. Tejas Ingale, learned counsel for the Respondent No.1. Perused the office note.

2. Mr. Ketan Joshi, learned counsel for the Applicant has been fair enough to submit that the Applicant is ready to deposit the Demand Draft of the statutory amount of Rs.25,000/- with the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal (MACT), Sangli, within two weeks from today so that claimants can withdraw the said amount.

3. Mr. Ingale, learned counsel for the Respondent No.1 has no objection if that exercise is made within two weeks.

4. Having regard to the submissions of learned counsel for respective sides, the Applicant is directed to deposit Demand Draft of Rs.25,000/- (statutory amount) with the MACT Sangli, within two weeks from today.

5. On such deposits, the MACT Sangli to accept the said amount of Demand Draft.

6. The Applicant shall furnish the receipt of depositing the Demand Draft of the statutory amount with the MACT Sangli with the Registry, thereafter within a week.

(SHRIKANT D. KULKARNI, J.)