CORAM : B.P. DHARMADHIKARI,
 ACTING CHIEF JUSTICE &
 N.R. BORKAR, J.
DATE : MARCH 4, 2020.

P.C.

1] The matrimonial dispute between the parties led to filing of Petition No.A-53 of 2017 before the Family Court at Thane. There, the consent terms have been reached before the Councillor. According to the said terms, the parties are getting marriage dissolved under Section 13B of the Hindu Marriage Act.

2] As a part of this compromise, the criminal case registered on complaint of wife is to be quashed.

3] Respondent No.2 is present with her advocate. Petitioner is also present with his advocate.

4] Respondent No.2 has accordingly given separate affidavit bringing no objection on record. Orally also, she has given no objection.

5] Accordingly, accepting joint request, we make Rule absolute in terms of prayer clause (a) and dispose of the petition.

(N.R. BORKAR, J.)
