CORAM : S.C. GUPTE, J.

DATE : 11 FEBRUARY 2020

P.C. :

. This group of petitions concerns orders passed by the Industrial Court (Industrial Court Nos.1 and 2) at Kolhapur on complaints of unfair labour practice. The complainants were all claiming as employees of Kolhapur Municipal Corporation. The complaints related to regularization of their services, permanency and other benefits. On these complaints, the two Industrial Courts have come to two diametrically opposite views. Whereas Industrial Court No.1 allowed the complaints and granted reliefs to the complainants, Industrial Court Room No.2 dismissed the complaints (save in case of one complaint). The orders have been challenged, respectively, by the employer establishment, namely, Kolhapur Municipal Corporation and the complainants.

2 After the matters are heard at some length, it is agreed between learned Counsel that all orders impugned in the present petitions, orders of both Industrial Court Nos.1 and 2, may be quashed and set aside the complaints be remanded to Industrial Court No.2 for a fresh hearing in accordance with law. It is submitted that the parties have led extensive evidence on the complaints. If any party proposes to tender any additional evidence, it will have the liberty to do so.

3 Accordingly, all writ petitions are allowed by quashing and setting aside the impugned orders passed by Industrial Court Nos.1 and 2, and remitting the complaints to Industrial Court No.2 for a fresh hearing in accordance with law. In addition to the evidence led by the parties on the complaints so far, the Industrial Court may permit such of the parties as propose to lead further evidence on the complaints, to do so.

4 The Industrial Court is requested to hear the parties and dispose of the complaints as expeditiously as possible and preferably within a period of six months from today. Both parties to appear before the Industrial Court on 17 February 2020 and produce an authenticated copy of this order, whereupon the Industrial Court may fix the schedule of hearings and proceed to hear the complaints.

5 It is made clear that for setting aside the impugned orders, as above, this court has proceeded simply on consent of parties and has not applied its mind to rival contentions in the matters. All rights and contentions of the parties on merit are kept open.

6 In view of the disposal of the writ petitions, by quashing of the impugned orders, the Contempt Petition, taken out by one successful complaint (Contempt Petition No.308 of 2015), is disposed of without passing any order.

7 Writ petition No.8727 of 2018 is detagged. This petition shall be heard separately and appear for admission on 2 March 2020.
