exercise in futility and wastage of time.

5. The Supreme Court in the case of Giansingh v. State of Punjab and Another¹ has held that, the criminal cases having overwhelmingly and predominatingly civil flavour stand on a different footing for the purposes of quashing, particularly the offences arising from commercial, financial, mercantile, civil, partnership or such like transactions or the offence arising out of matrimony relating to dowry, etc. or the family disputes where the wrong is basically private or personal in nature and the parties have resolved their entire dispute. In this category of cases, the High Court may quash the criminal proceedings if in its view, because of the compromise between the offender and the victim, the possibility of conviction is remote and bleak and continuation of the criminal case would put the accused to great oppression and prejudice and extreme injustice would be caused to him by not quashing the criminal case despite full and complete settlement and compromise with the victim. It is further held that, as inherent power is of wide plenitude with no statutory limitation but it has to be exercised in accord with the guidance engrafted in such power viz.: (I) to secure the ends of justice, or (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of any court.

1 2012 (10) SCC 303

6. In the light of above and since the Applicants and second Respondent have amicably settled the dispute and to that effect second Respondent has placed on record affidavit on 13th March, 2020, we are inclined to allow this Criminal Application in terms of prayer clause 'b', which reads as under :-

b. That this Hon'ble Court be pleased to quash the FIR bearing No. 3051/16 dated 19.7.2016 registered with Respondent No. 3 and all subsequent proceedings, if any, arising out of the said FIR;

7. Rule made absolute in terms of prayer clause 'b'. Accordingly, the Criminal Application stands disposed of.

8. Parties to act upon an authenticated copy of this order.
