1. The disputes between the parties are settled. Consent Terms are tendered. These are signed by all the Petitioners and the Respondent and their respective Advocates. The Consent Terms are taken on record and marked “M1” for identification with today’s date. The Consent Terms are in order. They have been drawn up by the parties of their own volition in reflection of their true intentions. The undertakings in the Consent Terms are accepted as undertakings to the Court.

2. The Arbitration Petition is disposed of in accordance with the Consent Terms.

3. A soft copy of the Consent Terms will be uploaded as second order in the matter.
