CORAM : S.M. MODAK, J.
DATE : 4th DECEMBER, 2020.

Heard the learned Advocates for the respective parties.

First Appeal No.265 of 2009 was already decided by this Court as per the Common Judgment, dated 12/03/2013. Deceased Kusum Dadaji Ghugul was respondent No.1 therein. During pendency of the appeal, she expired on 14/03/2013. A photocopy of Death Certificate is filed along with the application. However, it was not brought to the notice of the Court. Now, at the time of withdrawal of the amount of compensation, her legal representatives have realized about this mistake and that is why these applications are filed.

The appellant is not objecting for the same.
Earlier this fact was not brought on record, as it was not informed to the learned Advocate for respondent No.1.

Hence, the directions :

- i. Delay caused in bringing the legal representative of respondent No.1 on record is condoned.
- ii. The appellant is directed to bring the applicants as legal representatives of respondent No.1.
- iii. The applicants be permitted to withdraw the amount of compensation.
- iv. The Nazar is directed to transfer the amount of compensation by transferring the same directly to their bank account on their personal verification, as ordered by the Reference Court in it's judgment dated 25/04/2008.
- v. The applications are allowed and disposed of accordingly.
