However, till date petitioner has not controverted the said position and/or has not filed any counter to the same.

The learned counsel representing the petitioner has filed civil application for withdrawal of vakalatnama stating that the conduct of the petitioner compelled the counsel to rethink about representing the petitioner in the instant petition and after issuing notice to the petitioner on his known address, the notice returned back stating that the petitioner had left the address.

Taking into consideration the affidavit in reply, the civil application filed on record as well as the fact that substantive writ petition is pending we deem it appropriate to dispose of the contempt petition. Accordingly contempt petition is disposed of.
