CORAM: RAVINDRA V. GHUGE, J.

DATED : 28th January, 2020.

1. The learned Advocate points out that as the petitioners have directly approached this Court against the order passed by the S.D.O. Gondia under Section 247 of the Maharashtra Land Revenue Code, 1966 and since he has a statutory remedy available, as is evident from Schedule-E of Section 247 of the Maharashtra Land Revenue Code, 1966, this petition could be disposed of with the said liberty.

2. The learned Advocate for the petitioners submits that the time spent by the petitioners in this Court may be excused and they would avail of the statutory remedies.

3. In view of above, this petition is disposed off with liberty to the petitioners to resort the statutory remedy, as is permissible in law. The time spent by the petitioners in this Court from 06.06.2018 till the passing of this order, would be a good ground for condonation of delay.

4. Since this Court had granted protection to the petitioners vide order dated 02.07.2018 which is operative for the last 18 months, the said relief would be continued for a further period of six weeks. In the event, the petitioners move an application for interim relief before the appropriate authority, the same shall be considered independently, on its own merits.
