CORAM : V.M DESHPANDE & S.M. MODAK, JJ.

DATE : 5th MARCH, 2020

By this appeal, the appellant challenged the judgment and order passed by the learned Judge of the Family Court, Akola in A-Petition No.155/2014, dated 28/08/2015 whereby the learned Judge of the Family Court dismissed the proceedings for restitution of conjugal rights filed on behalf of the appellant.

02] This appeal was admitted on 11/04/2018.

03] Today, this matter was listed before the Court since the appellant did not file the private paper-book.

04] The appellant is represented by learned Counsel Shri A.R. Deshpande, whereas the respondent is represented by learned Counsel Shri A.M. Tirukh.

05] Shri Deshpande, learned Counsel for the appellant would submit that during pendency of this appeal, the parties to this appeal have obtained divorce by mutual consent. He submits that the appellant is not interested in prosecuting this appeal and, therefore, prays that the appellant be permitted to withdraw this appeal. His submission is accepted.

06] Family Court Appeal No.32/2018 is, therefore, disposed of as withdrawn. No costs.
