Though this application was dismissed against respondent no.3 by the learned Registrar (Judicial), the respondent no.3 has appeared on the basis of the intimation given on behalf of the appellant. It is submitted that the VIDC has already preferred an appeal. In view of the certain set of facts, these proceedings are restored against respondent no.3 on the basis of oral request.

There is a delay of 384 days. It is strongly opposed. The reasons are convincing. The claimant is ready to waive the interest. Hence, the order :-
