and Registrar's orders

Court's or Judge's orders

CORAM : SUNIL B. SHUKRE AND AVINASH G. GHAROTE, JJ.

DATED : 02nd December, 2020

Shri B. G. Kulkarni, learned counsel submits that earlier he used to represent all the petitioners but, some time ago, the petitioners took back the file and all the papers from him, informing him that in due course, they would be appearing in person for hearing. Therefore, he submits that now he is no longer representing any of the petitioners.

2. Petitioner No.1 – Shekhar Purushottam Kannao, has filed Civil Application No. 3143 of 2019 claiming for grant of early final hearing. There is no difficulty in granting early final hearing but, petitioner No.1 must ensure that he is also representing the remaining petitioners and, therefore, he would have to inform all the remaining petitioners about grant of final hearing by this Court.

3. Considering the long pendency of this petition, Civil Application No.3143 of 2019 is allowed.

4. Let the petition be finally heard on 07.01.2021.

5. Registry to notify the final hearing date to all the petitioners by individually sending them notices on the address given in the memo of petition.

6. In addition to that, notice also be sent to petitioner No.1 through SMS/WhatsApp message on mobile No.9922914845, as given in Civil Application.
