DATED : 08th December, 2020

Heard.

Although this application has been filed in December 2019, it is common knowledge that the entire construction activity had come to halt during the time when the temple itself was closed for darshan and other allied activities. Therefore, we are of the view that this application deserves to be allowed and it is allowed accordingly. Further six months time for completing the construction is granted.

The application is disposed of.
