The subject matter of the Second Appeal pending before this Court is the property alleged to be held by the Arulmigu Koppa Nachiamman & Madhala Nachiamman Temple. In connection with the property, four suits were laid before the Sub Court, Udumalpet between the year 1986 and 1989. The main contestant in this matter is one Nachimuthu Gounder, who is the plaintiff in O.S.No.167 of 1986 and one of the defendant in other three suits O.S.Nos.179 of 1986, 185 of 1989 and 319 of 1989.

2. The basic admitted facts pleaded by the parties in these four suits is that the property owned by the Nachia amman and Madhala Nachiamman koil. The land was leased out to the parties. The electricity connection for the suit land stands in the name of the temple. As per the plaint in O.S.No.167 of 1986 one Subbay Gounder was looking after the affairs of the temple as the trustee of the temple. After his death, his sons are looking after the affairs of the temple.

3. The contention raised by the plaintiff in O.S.No.167 of 1986 was resisted by the temple and other respondents stating that the plaintiffs were never the tenants.

4. The trial Court after framing appropriate issues, examined the witnesses, in its common judgment dismissed the suit in O.S.No.167 of 1986 filed by one Nachimuthu Gounder, who died pending suit and his legal representatives were brought on record as the plaintiff 2 to 9. The permanent injunction was granted in O.S.No.179 of 1986 filed by one Bhuvaneshwari against Nachimuthu Gounder and his legal representatives as the defendants 2 to 10. Injunction was granted in O.S.No.185 of 1989 filed by one K.V.P.Somasundaram against Nachimuthu Gounder and others. Permanent injunction was granted in O.S.No.319 of 1989 against Nachimuthu Gounder and others. In all these four suits, the Executive Officer of Arulmigu Koppa Nachiamman & Madhala Nachiamman Temple was one of the defendants.

5. Against the common judgment and decree passed by the trial Court as mentioned above, the first appeal was filed by the legal representatives of Nachimuthu Gounder and others.

6. The first appellate Court in its common judgment dated 23.05.1991 reversed the finding of the trial Court and allowed the first appeal in A.S.No.111 of 1990 preferred by the legal representatives of Nachimuthu Gounder and others and allowed the suit in O.S.No.167 of 1986 filed for relief of permanent injunction.

7. As far as the other first appeals A.S.Nos.108 to 110 of 1990, the lower appellate Court held that the plaintiffs are not entitled for injunction. Thus, in sum and substance, the first appellate Court held that the property of the temple is in possession of the legal representatives of Nachimuthu Gounder and others/plaintiffs in O.S.No.167 of 1986. The plaintiffs in other suits not proved the possession of the property.

8. In the said circumstances this Second Appeal S.A.No.207 of 1992 is preferred by K.V.P.Somasundaram, the plaintiff in O.S.No.185 of 1989 and 1st respondent in A.S.No.109 of 1990. When the matter was taken up in the earlier occasion, it was reported that the respondents 1,2 and 4 died and the same was recorded by this Court on 23.11.2020, granted time to take necessary steps to bring their legal representatives.

9. Today, when the matter was listed, the learned counsel for the appellants reports that no instructions from his client to bring the legal representatives of the deceased respondents 1,2 and 4 on record.

10. In the view of the above, the Second Appeal is dismissed for non prosecution. No costs.
