COMMON ORDER

These Criminal Original Petitions have been filed to direct the respondents 1 to 3 herein to provide adequate police protection to the petitioners, based on the petitioners' representation dated 22.11.2019.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that the petitioners have already filed Civil Suit before the Principal District Judge, Vellore and got the status quo order against the respondents 4 to 6. He further submitted that inspite of the said order, the respondents 4 to 6 are disturbing the petitioners' possession and hence he requested to direct the respondents 1 to 3 to provide police protection to the petitioners to enjoy their properties.

3. If the respondent 4 to 6 have not obeyed the order passed by the Civil Court, the petitioners can file petition under Order 39 Rule 2(A) C.P.C., before the same court for enforcing the interim order which was already granted by the said Court. If the said Civil Court finds any difficulty for enforcing its order, it can direct the police to provide police aid by invoking the provisions of Section 151 C.P.C. When the petitioners are having remedy before the Civil Court itself, they are not entitled to file this kind of petition before this Court. With the aforesaid observations, these Criminal Original Petitions are disposed of.
