JUDGMENT

When the matter came up for hearing on 03.12.2019 and 06.12.2019, the learned counsel for the appellant sought some time to get instructions and accordingly, the matter was adjourned on those occasions. When the matter was again called on 09.12.2019, the learned counsel for the appellant requested time to file impleading petition for the deceased 1st respondent and the case again came to be adjourned.

2. Today, when the matter is taken up for consideration, it is seen that the impleading petition is yet to be filed. In spite of sufficient opportunities given to the appellant, the said petition was not filed from 22.10.2018 to till date. Hence, this Court is not inclined to grant any further opportunity and accordingly, the present Civil Miscellaneous Appeal stands dismissed. No costs.
