When the matter was taken up for consideration, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that during the pendency of the writ petition, the petitioner died. He would further submit that after the death of the petitioner, he requested the legal heirs of the petitioner to implead themselves in the writ petition by filing appropriate petition, however, thereafter he could not get any instructions from them. Hence, the learned counsel reports 'no instructions'.

2.Since the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner reports 'no instructions', this Court is of the opinion that the legal heirs of the deceased petitioner are not interested to pursue the matter. Hence, this writ petition is dismissed. No costs.
