

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT MADRAS

DATED : 14.08.2020

CORAM :

THE HONOURABLE MR.JUSTICE N.KIRUBAKARAN
AND
THE HONOURABLE MS.JUSTICE V.M.VELUMANI

H.C.P.No.197 of 2020

Santhi

... Petitioner

Vs

1. Government of Tamil Nadu,
Rep., By its Secretary,
Home, Prohibition and Excise (XVI) Department,
Fort St.George,
Chennai - 600 009.
2. The District Magistrate and District Collector,
Tiruppur District,
Tiruppur.

... Respondents

PRAYER : Writ Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying for issuance of Writ of Habeas Corpus, calling for the records in Cr.M.P.No.35/Goonda/2019 dated 19.12.2019 on the file of the 2nd respondent and set aside the same and direct the respondents herein to produce the body of the petitioner's son namely the detenu Bharathkumar, aged 31 years, son of late Manoharan now confined in Central Prison, Coimbatore before this Court and set him at liberty.

For Petitioner : Mrs.R.Subhadra devi.

For Respondents: Mr. R. Prathap Kumar,
Additional Public Prosecutor.

ORDER

(Order of the court was made by N.KIRUBAKARAN.J.,)

The matter was heard through "Video Conferencing".

2.The Mother of the detenu has filed this Petition challenging the detention order passed by the Second Respondent in Cr.M.P.No.35/Goonda/2019 dated 19.12.2019 under the Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982 as he has got 3 adverse cases apart from ground case registered against him.

3. Heard Mrs.R.Subhadra devi, learned Counsel appearing for the Petitioner and Mr. R. Prathap Kumar, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the Respondents.

4. It is seen from the records that the representation sent on behalf of the detenu has not been considered within time frame and there is a delay of 17 days in considering and disposing of the representation.

5. In the decision in "C.Muthuvali Vs. The Principal Secretary to Government, Home Prohibition and Excise Department, Government of Tamil Nadu, Secretariat, Chennai - 600 009" reported in "[(2017) (1) MWN (Cr.) 270 (DB)]" it has been held that an unexplained delay of nine working days on the part of the Government in considering the representation rendered the detention illegal. Another Division Bench of this Court in "Samaiah Vs. The Secretary to Government" reported in "[(2007) (4) MWN (Cr.) 145]" has held that an unexplained delay of three days in disposal of the representation made by the detenu would be sufficient to set aside the detention order.

6. Further, a larger Bench of the Supreme Court in "Rekha Vs. The State of Tamil Nadu" reported in "2011 5 SCC 244" has held that "Preventive detention is by nature repugnant to democratic ideas and an anathema to the rule of law. No such law exists in the USA and in England (except during war time). However, Article 22(3)(b) of the Constitution of India permits preventive detention, we cannot hold it illegal but we must confine the power of preventive detention within very narrow limits, otherwise we will be taking away the great right to liberty guaranteed by Article 21 of the Constitution of India which was won after long, arduous, historic struggles".

7. Since there is an unexplained delay in considering the representation submitted by the detenu, the detention order passed by the second respondent is liable to be set aside.

8. Accordingly, the detention order passed by the Second Respondent in Cr.M.P.No.35/Goonda/2019 dated 19.12.2019 is quashed and the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed. The detenu viz., Bharathkumar, aged 31 years, son of late Manoharan who is now confined in Central Prison, Coimbatore is directed to be set at liberty forthwith unless his presence is required in connection with any other case.
