The Writ Petition in W.P.No.47705 of 2006 has been filed challenging the order passed by the second respondent in Lr.No.44/Pension -2/TNSTC/2003-1342 dated 27.1.2003 and quash the same and also direct the respondents to pay the petitioner pension every month.

2. The petition in W.P.No.22568 of 2008 has been filed challenging the order passed by the first respondent in No.LC No.10977/Pen.1/OU/TNSTC/2008 dated nil.04.2008 and direct the respondents to pay pension arrears from the date of retirement dated 30.09.2000 to petitioner.

3. The learned Standing Counsel appearing for the first respondent would submit that already the pension is added and now the petitioners are receiving the pension. In support of this, he has filed the proceedings of the Pension Order. Therefore, the relief sought for by the petitioners in the Writ Petitions has been granted by the Government and hence, prays that the Writ Petitions may be dismissed as infructuous.

4.Considering the submission made by the learned standing counsel, nothing survives for further adjudication in these Writ Petitions. Accordingly, these Writ Petitions are dismissed as infructuous. No costs.
