Today, the matter is listed through Video Conference. By consent of both the parties, the Writ Petition is taken up for final disposal.

2. Mr.C.Vigneswaran, the learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that certain information was sought for by the fourth respondent before the respondents 1 and 2. This information relates to the functioning and administration of the petitioner's company to which he raised certain objections. The learned counsel would also submit that pending Writ Petitions, the fourth respondent died. No application for substituting the legal heirs of the fourth respondent has been filed before this Court and the Writ Petition has abated.

3. Even otherwise, it is seen that the fourth respondent was originally interested in seeking certain information from the respondents 1 and 2 touching upon the approval of provident fund and other incidental issues. Now that, it is brought to the notice of this Court that the fourth respondent is no more, no effective orders can be passed in the absence of the fourth respondent, apart from abatement of the Writ Petition. However, if the legal heirs of the fourth respondent are of the view that the issue with regard to seeking certain information requires to be continued, they are granted liberty to proceed, in accordance with law.

4. In the light of the above observations and taking into account that no effective adjudication can be made in the present cases, the Writ Petitions stand closed with the above liberty to the legal heirs of the fourth respondent. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petitions are closed. No costs.
