CP.No.151 of 2013

M.SUNDAR, J.

Mr.A.Vikash, learned counsel on record for applicant is before this Court. Learned Deputy Official Liquidator is before this Court on behalf of respondent i.e., the Official Liquidator attached to this Court.

2. Instant application has been filed with a prayer for condonation of 171 days delay in filing Form 66.

3. The reasons for delay have been articulated in paragraphs 3 and 4, which read as follows:

'3. I state that I was working as a General Manager (Design Service) in M/s.VTX Industries Limited from the year 2011. I state that since the Respondent Company was not functioning well and was in lock out for a long period of time. As I was in search o job for my livelihood and as I had no regular contact with the workers union, I was not aware of the developments in the Company.

4. I state that on further enquiry, I came to know that all the creditors of the company in liquidation has to file their claim before the Official Liquidator in a prescribed format, Form No.66.'

4. Be that as it may, learned Deputy Official Liquidator very fairly submits that there is no serious opposition for allowing this application, subject to the rider that Form No.66 filed by the applicant will be considered on its own merits.

5. In the light of aforementioned trajectory in hearing today, having heard learned counsel for applicant, learned Deputy Official Liquidator and having been satisfied that the prayer in the instant application deserves to be acceded to, there being no opposition to the same owing to facts and circumstances of instant case, instant application is ordered as prayed for.
