Writ Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying to issue a Writ of Certiorari, to call for the records on the file of the 3rd respondent passed by on 13.03.2018 and quash the same as illegal, incompetent and ultravires.

For Petitioner : Mr.M.Guruprasad

For Respondents: Mr.R.Govindasamy
Special Government Pleader
for R1 to R5

O R D E R

This writ petition is filed challenging the proceedings of the third respondent dated 13.03.2018, which is nothing but recording the terms and conditions resulting out of the Peace Committee Meeting held between the two rival parties viz., "A" party and "B" party, in respect of conducting festival at Arulmighu Porasamarathu Iyyan Thiru Kovil, Komarapalayam, Thirupur District.

2. Admittedly, the petitioner is one of the B-party to the terms of such recording of the proceedings. The present writ petition is filed seeking to quash the said proceedings by contending that the petitioner is entitled to conduct Panguni Uthram festival at the said Temple and therefore, Clause 2 of the said recording of the Peace Committee Meeting stare against the petitioner and consequently, it has to be set aside. It is not in dispute that a suit and counter suit filed by both parties are pending before the competent Civil Court arising out of the same cause of action. The third respondent, who conducted the Peace Committee Meeting, found that insofar as conducting the Panguni Uthram festival at the said Temple is concerned, no consensus has reached between the warring parties and therefore, they have to wait till a decision is made by the Civil Court for conducting such festival.

3. When such being the position, I do not think that the petitioner is justified in approaching this Court and filing the present writ petition to quash the above said proceedings viz., recording of the Peace Committee Meeting, more particularly, when the petitioner is also party to the said proceedings. Thus, without expressing any view on the merits of the claim made by the petitioner, this Writ Petition is disposed of, only by granting liberty to the petitioner to agitate his right before the competent Civil Court, where the suits are pending. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
