

COMP.A.No.121 of 2020
in
CP.No.151 of 2013

M.SUNDAR, J.

Mr.A.Vikash, learned counsel on record for applicant is before this Court. Mr.Y.Vijayasimha Reddy, learned Assistant Official Liquidator is before this Court on behalf of respondent i.e., Official Liquidator attached to this Court.

2. Instant application has been filed with a prayer for condonation of 214 days delay in filing Form 66 (claim).

3. The reason for delay has been articulated in paragraph 7 of the affidavit filed in support of instant application, which reads as follows:

'7. The delay in filing the Form 66 is due to the pressure of work at my present employment. Further, I am unaware of the procedural formalities in filing Form 66. I have come to know only now that such a procedure exists and that I am entitled to make a claim before the Hon'ble Official Liquidator against my erstwhile employer, M/s.VTX Industries Limited.'

4. Be that as it may, learned Assistant Official Liquidator very fairly submits that there is no serious opposition to this application, subject to the rider that Form No.66 filed by the applicant will be considered on its own merits.

5. In the light of aforementioned trajectory in the hearing today, having heard learned counsel for applicant, learned Assistant Official Liquidator and having been satisfied that the prayer in instant application deserves to be acceded to, having noticed that there is no opposition to instant application and owing to facts and circumstances of case on hand, instant application is ordered as prayed for.
