... Petitioner

Vs.

P.Senthilkumar

... Respondent

When this case is taken up for hearing today, both the parties are present. Mr.S.J.Mohamed Sathik, learned counsel representing M/s.N.Manokaran, learned counsel for the writ petitioner and Mr.K.C.Vinodh, learned counsel representing Mr.L.Chandrakumar, learned counsel for respondent are present.

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

The Labour Court, Salem passed an Award in I.D.No.21 of 2014 directing the Writ Petitioner to reinstate the respondent with 25% of backwages. As against the award, the Petitioner has filed this Writ Petition to quash the Award.

2. The Writ Petition was sent to the Lok Adalat by the Hon'ble High Court for effecting a compromise. Both the parties as well as their respective counsel are present today. They filed a Joint Memo of Compromise duly signed by both parties and their respective counsel.

3. By virtue of the compromise memo, it has been agreed by both sides that the respondent shall be reinstated in service by the petitioner without any backwages or continuity of service or other benefits; however, it was agreed that it is open to the respondent to stake his claim for seeking permanency as per the provisions of the Act. It is also agreed by both the parties that the respondent shall be taken back to service on daily wages of Rs.350/- (Rupees Three Hundred and Fifty only). The petitioner also agrees to reinstate the respondent within 15 (fifteen) days from the date of receipt of the copy of the award passed by this Adalat.
