

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT MADRAS

DATED: 20.01.2020

CORAM :

The Hon'ble Mr.A.P.SAHI, THE CHIEF JUSTICE

AND

The Hon'ble Mr.JUSTICE SUBRAMONIUM PRASAD

W.P.No.31095 of 2019

R.Elangovan

.. Petitioner

-vs-

1.The Registrar General,
Madras High Court,
Chennai.

2.The Principal District Judge,
Namakkal District, Namakkal.

.. Respondents

Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying for issue of Writ of Certiorarified Mandamus to call for the records pertaining to the orders in Roc.No.2700/A/2017 dated 17.03.2017 and Roc.No.3727/A/2017 dated 19.04.2017 on the file of the 2nd respondent and quash the same; consequentially direct the 2nd respondent to re-consider the petitioner's application dt.16.03.2017 requesting for job under compassionate ground, without reference to the delay.

For Petitioner : Mr.R.Neelakandan

For Respondents : Mr.V.Balamurugan

ORDER

(Order of the Court was made by The Hon'ble Chief Justice)

This is a matter relating to compassionate appointment. It is undisputed that the petitioner's father, who was working as a night watchman in the Court of Judicial Magistrate, Rasipuram, Namakkal, died in harness on 30.01.2012.

2.The petitioner is one of the legal heirs and he made a request through an application dated 16.03.2017 to the second respondent for appointment on compassionate basis. The same has been turned down on the ground of delay and the contention is that the bonafide and legitimate request of the petitioner has not been accepted without considering the question of condoning the delay in the filing of the application.

3.From the record, we find that the petitioner is a very well qualified person having obtained his bachelor degree in Literature from Periyar University, Salem, in First Class.

4.In the wake of the said background and further fact that the petitioner belongs to Scheduled Caste community, we hope and trust that the request of the petitioner, if made before the State Government for any such relaxation, shall be considered and disposed of appropriately.

With the aforesaid observation, the writ petition stands disposed of. No costs.
