ORDER

[Order of the Court was made by M.M.SUNDRESH, J.]

The petitioner is the wife of Alex @ Vinothkumar, S/o.Sagayam, aged 32 years, who is the detenu. The detenu has been detained by the second respondent in connection with order in BCDFGISSSV No.07/2020 dated 10.03.2020, holding him to be a "Bootlegger", as contemplated under Section 2(b) of Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982. The said order is under challenge in this Habeas Corpus Petition.

2. We have heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents and we have also perused the records carefully.

3.Though learned counsel for the petitioner has raised several other grounds to assail the order of detention, he has mainly focused his argument on the ground that the detaining authority, while detaining the detenu, has not furnished the legible copies of the documents relied on by him. This deprived the detenu from making effective representation. Therefore, on this sole ground, the detention order is liable to be quashed.

4.On consideration of the submissions made on either side and upon perusal of the documents available on record, especially the lab report pertaining to third adverse case at Page No.79 of the booklet, it is clear that the detaining authority, by providing illegible copies of the documents, has taken away the rights of detenu to effectively defend himself against his detention. Thus the impugned detention order is liable to be set aside on this ground.

5. In the result, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the order of detention in BCDFGISSSV No.07/2020 dated 10.03.2020 passed by the second respondent is set aside. The detenu, namely, Alex @ Vinothkumar, S/o.Sagayam, aged 32 years, is directed to be released forthwith unless his detention is required in connection with any other case.
