2. The case of the prosecution is that the respondent police registered a case based on the complaint preferred by the defacto complainant, namely T.Balasubramanian, Under Secretary, Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission, Chennai, for the alleged offence under sections 462,468 472 IPC r/w 120(b) IPC and the petitioner was formerly arrested on 23.03.2020 when he was in judicial custody in connection with Crime No.4 of 2020 registered by another Wing attached to the CBCID. It is alleged in the FIR that the petitioner fabricated the documents and forged the signature of the Government officials, in conspiracy with other accused persons with a view to obtain illegal gain by way of tampering the examination documents, OMR sheets in connection with the examination conducted by the Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission (hereinafter referred to as TNPSC).

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that there is no material evidence available against the petitioner and he is in prison from 09.02.2020 in view of another case in Crime No.4/2020, and also some of the co-accused persons were released on bail by the learned Principal Sessions Judge, Chennai. He further submitted that the petitioner was implicated in some other two cases also, wherein also the interrogation has been completed. He further submits that the petitioner is in judicial custody for the past 83 days, and also he has no previous antecedents. Hence, he sought for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor (CrI.Side) submitted that the petitioner involved in committing the offence by fabricating documents, forged the signature, tampering the answer sheets and aided the prime accused in commission of crime. Thereby, he committed a serious offence against the society. He also submitted that the investigation is still pending and therefore, he vehemently opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. It is seen that the petitioner is one of the accused in the scam of an examination conducted by the TNPSC, by fabricating the documents and forged the signature of Government officials and tampering the examination sheets. Thereby, he committed serious offence against the society and as such, this Court has dismissed the bail petitions of the co-accused on various occasions. Therefore, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner and hence, the petition stands dismissed. However, the petitioner is at liberty to approach the Magistrate Court concerned under Section 167(2) of Cr.P.C., to obtain default bail.
